

Merry Christmas

from Mother Abbess and all the Sisters at the Abbey of Our Lady of Ephesus...

Whoever thirsts, let him come to Me and drink." Let us then once again come as to a fountain: let us fill our souls: let us satiate ourselves of the torrent of pleasure. For the blessed David somewhere in a psalm thus speaks of Him to God the Father: "They shall be satisfied with the fatness of Your house: and You shall make them drink of the torrent of Your pleasure. For with Thee is the fountain of life." For the river of pleasure is richly poured forth for us, and the fountain of life, even that which is in Christ: Who also by one of the prophets has thus spoken concerning us: "Behold, I bend down to them as a river of peace, and as a torrent flooding them with the glory of the Gentiles." - St. Cyril of Alexandria
